

Acacia decurrens (Sydney Green Wattle)

---

Description

A medium sized tree with dark grey to black bark. The bark contains a high percentage of tannin.

Height

10m – 16m

Habitat

Open hilly country and open forest, mainly on shales.

Flowering

July - September

Flowers

Bright yellow

Landscape Use

Revegetation, Windbreaks, Excellent habitat tree, Pioneer species.

