

Acacia floribunda (Sally Wattle)

Description

A graceful small tree with pendulous branches that is extremely floriferous.

Height

2m – 7m

Habitat

Common along river and creek banks. Likes sheltered moist areas on both clay and sandy soils.

Flowering

June - August

Flowers

Pale yellow

Landscape Use

Revegetation, Highly ornamental, Street and Garden specimen.

