

Acacia parramattensis (Parramatta Green Wattle)

Description

A small tree with a brown-black trunk. The tips of the young foliage are greenish yellow. Stems and branches have minute ridges.

Height

10m

Habitat

Open forest, on both shales and sandstones. Tends to colonise along creek lines.

Flowering

Late November - February

Flowers

Pale yellow

Landscape Use

Revegetation, Windbreaks, Excellent Habitat tree, Pioneer species, Shelter Tree

