

Angophora floribunda (Rough Barked Apple)

Description

A handsome small to medium tree with fibrous bark and sinuously contorted upper limbs. Long lived (100 years) but slow growing.

Height

10m – 30m

Habitat

Mostly found on deep alluvial flats, along watercourses and on undulating country in open forest and woodland.

Flowering

October - December

Flowers

White

Landscape Use

Revegetation, Street tree, Ornamental

