

Aristida ramosa var. speciosa (Wire Grass)

Description

A wiry looking narrow grass with erect branchlets and inflorescence. The lemma is similar in length to the glumes, and one awn is longer than the other two.

Height

60cm – 70cm

Habitat

Poor shallow shales and sandy soils, usually in dry sites on the coast, tablelands and interior.

Flowering

January - April

Flowers

Vertical, branchlets

Landscape Use

Revegetation only. Drought tolerant, Warm season grass.

