

Aristida ramosa (Wire Grass)

Description

Wiry looking grass that produces a long slender inflorescence with erect appressed branchlets. It is grey-green in colour and often grows in clumps.

Height

50cm – 60cm

Habitat

Poor shallow shales and sandy soils, usually in dry sites on the coast, tablelands and interior. Drought tolerant.

Flowering

December - April

Flowers

Brown-grey narrow erect appressed branchlets

Landscape Use

Revegetation only. Drought tolerant, Warm season grass.

