

Danthonia longifolia (Wallaby Grass)

---

Description

An erect grass that grows in clumps. It has a highly ornamental inflorescence and long seed plume.

Height

40cm

Habitat

Found on clay soils in open woodland and grassland, often on roadside verges.

Flowering

Winter – Spring/Autumn

Flowers

White

Landscape Use

Revegetation. Highly ornamental in mass planting. Good coloniser. Drought tolerant, cool season grass.

