

Eucalyptus amplifolia (Cabbage Gum)

Description

A medium sized tree with white and grey platy bark. It frequently forks close to the ground.

Height

30m

Habitat

Occurs on heavier clayey alluvial soils, especially along creek flats and poorly drained low-lying areas.

Flowering

December - January

Flowers

White

Landscape Use

Revegetation, Street tree.
Highly ornamental

