

Eucalyptus tereticornis (Forest Red Gum)

Description

A large, handsome tree. The bark is mottled with tones of pale and dark greys.

Height

30m – 40m

Habitat

Well drained clay soils and alluviums. Occurs on grassy woody alluvial flats on the Cumberland Plains.

Flowering

June - November

Flowers

White

Landscape Use

Revegetation, street scape.

Revegetation, street scape

