

Bursaria spinosa (Blackthorn)

Description

An erect shrub, usually with light foliage and side branchlets ending in thorns.

Height

2m – 4m

Habitat

Found over most of the Cumberland Plain, where Bursaria is now the dominant understorey plant/shrub.

Flowering

Summer

Flowers

White

Landscape Use

Drought tolerant. Ornamental when flowering. Good coloniser. Screening. Good habitat for small birds.

