

Poa labillardieri (Common Tussock Grass)

Description

Dense perennial tussocks with long stems, often slender. Leaves are greyish-green.

Height

1m

Habitat

Open forest, woodland and grassland.

Flowering

March - April

Flowers

Purplish-grey

Landscape Use

Revegetation, roadside, weed suppressor. Very attractive, ideal for mass planting. Drought tolerant, cool season grass.

